RE: Legal Opinion Regarding Sec. 2-1059 (3)(b)(15) of the Coral Gables City Code
Cone of Silence

Date: August 8, 2016

Yes, that is my office's interpretation of 2-1059(3)(b)(15) [please note, the list of exempt officers includes the City Clerk as well]. Also, the list has been interpreted to include the City Manager's designee for a particular procurement (as the designee is exercising the City Manager's authority for purposes of the procurement in a like manner to an assistant city manager).

Please note, the fact that you can meet with a Commissioner or one of the other listed individuals under the Cone of Silence does not exempt you from all other requirements including: (1) lobbyist registration and other lobbying laws, (2) Sunshine law, (3) Public records laws, (4) ethics codes, etc. These must still be followed as well.

Dear Mr. Leen:

I represent LAZ Florida Parking, LLC concerning the above referenced RFP.

Please confirm that pursuant to Sec. 2-1059 of the Coral Gables City Code, the cone of silence does not apply to oral or written communications between my client and its lobbyists and the Mayor, Vice Mayor, City Commissioners, City Attorney, City Manager, Assistant City Managers and Chief Procurement Officer.

Thank you.
